Tradition, history and royal tales await and there's even more to love. Read the full itineraries at trafalgar.com.

Discover...

A glimpse into the legacy and lives of the British Royal Family when you visit Kensington Palace for a traditional English high tea, exploring this grand palace. You'll be immersed in the stories and distinguished history of Kensington Palace, before enjoying an English cream tea. You'll get to know the intimate details on how to savour it, what to try first and how it plays an important part of British tradition. Where better to enjoy it than in the home of the Royals?

London Explorer, day 6

Explore...

Buckfast Abbey. This extraordinary abbey's history spans over 1,000 years. Here you'll discover first-hand how the Benedictine monks now live and work in this active monastery, perhaps most famous for the fairly potent brew the monks have been making since the 1890s. Keep an ear out for the sound of its 15 bells!

Best of Devon and Cornwall, day 3

Meet...

Ian and Ann Dyer, an English Lord and Lady, at their home, 15th-century Blackmore Farm, located at the foot of the stunning Quantock Hills in Somerset. The hosts for this incredible MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experience will give you a fascinating introduction to the ancient manor, complete with suits of armour and ancient weapons, which was mentioned in the Domesday book of 1085. End the experience with a delicious lunch made by Ann using only local produce.
