This temple contains a large statue of Buddha built by the Chinese. Originally a statue of Buddha is built to face the east to greet the rising sun; in the case of this Buddha it was built to face China. It is thought that this was to move the power of a sleeping dragon that lies within the mountain over to China, After lunch at local restaurant, visit Kampong Luong, whose inhabitants specialize in silver and copper smiting. They make superb ornamental items, including delicately engraved tropical fruits, used in traditional ceremonies at the pagoda or for marriage's.
