TRAVEL ITINERARY

ITINERARY
DAY 1 - ARRIVAL IN SWITZERLAND
Individual train travel to Lucerne. Lucerne is located in the heart of Switzerland and is one of the most scenic cities in the country, surrounded by spectacular alpine mountain peaks and stunning Lake Lucerne. Overnight stay in Lucerne.
DAY 2 - LUCERNE
Day at leisure. Explore Lucerne and surrounds. Historic monuments have been contrasted with contemporary designs, while traditional festivals and modern events have created a unique and exciting city centre with a range of attractions all year round. Explore the city centre and visit the covered, medieval Chapel Bridge and the Lion Monument. Alternatively choose one of the many excursions on offer from lake cruises, over mountain excursions to chocolate making or guided tours. Overnight stay in Lucerne.
DAY 3 - GOTTHARD PANORAMA EXPRESS
Breakfast at the hotel. The Gotthard Express links two of Switzerland's most attractive regions: Central Switzerland and Ticino. The trip starts in Lucerne as you board the steamer for the 2½h cruise across Lake Lucerne to Flüelen on which you can watch sleepy bays and picturesque village glide by. The trip continues through the impressive Reuss Valley with its deep ravines and cliffs. The world-famous Gotthard line swiftly climbs from 470 to about 1100 meters above sea level to finally enter the 15-kilometre-long Gotthard tunnel – Europe's most important North/South gateway. After 10 minutes tunnel passage you will arrive in the Mediterranean climate of Switzerland's Italian speaking canton of Ticino. In the Leventina Valley, the Gotthard Express crosses breath-taking bridges and passes charming villages on its way to Bellinzona. Change here to continue your journey to Lugano. Overnight stay in Lugano.

Wander around the old town at your leisure and soak up the atmosphere, take a stroll around the lake or hike along one of the scenic hiking trails of the Upper Engadine.
