ATTRACTIONS

YONGHE TEMPLE

It is the largest Tibetan Buddhist temple in Beijing. During the Ming Dynasty, it was a residence for eunuchs, and the Yong Prince's mansion was built on the site. After Yongzheng ascended the throne, the front part was converted into the Yellow Sect Upper Court, and the rear part was used as an imperial palace. Later, the palace was destroyed by fire, and the Upper Court was converted into a palace.

WUDAOYING HUTONG

Wudaoying is a microcosm of the urban fabric and lifestyle of old Beijing. It is a famous trendy alley and was once the barracks of Ming Dynasty city guards. Today, it is a Chinese alley with an international flair.

HEPING GUOJU

This is one of Beijing's most famous trendy spots, where various Beijing-style folk crafts allow people to immerse themselves in the old Beijing alleyway life. It evokes a sense of the lost old Beijing culture.

SHIJIA HUTONG MUSEUM

This museum tells you the story of "Beijing." It provides a deep understanding of Beijing's hutongs, courtyard house culture, the daily lives of locals, and authentic cultural aspects.

BEIJING FUN

It is located in the Dashilan historical and cultural preservation area. It connects Beijing's past, present, and future. It aims to create a "Chinese-style living experience area," integrating historical genes with the city's future in architecture, combining China and the world in business, and showcasing Chinese contemporary spirit and global vision in culture. It presents a unique blend of Chinese wisdom in culture, art, design, and lifestyle.

CBD NIGHT TOUR

The neon-lit night view of the Guomao CBD is enchanting. From the high floors of any skyscraper, you can gaze far and wide, taking in the grandeur and magnificence of the capital, and mesmerizing cityscapes.

BEIJING INTERNATIONAL FLOWER PORT

It is a vast floral park that offers a variety of flower displays and recreational activities, allowing visitors to experience flower culture and wander in a sea of flowers.

FUJING HISTORICAL & CULTURAL DISTRICT

This district has a rich historical heritage and unique cultural landscape, allowing visitors to experience the local atmosphere and appreciate its culture's charm.

OPTIONAL TOURS

- ◆ Golden Mask Dynasty Show + tricycle tour in Hutong + courtyard home visit + Old Laobeijing Tanghui RMB400 / person
- ◆ Simatai Great Wall (Round-trip Cable Car included) + Boat Tour in Water Town RMB300 / person
