TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

MANILA

- ◆ Casa Manila - The Casa Manila or "Manila House" is a living museum that features the lifestyle of an affluent Filipino family during the late Spanish colonial period. The façade of Casa Manila was patterned after a house that once stood at Jaboneros Street in the Chinese district of Binondo in the 1850's. The interior decor of the house follows the taste of the turn of the late 19th century where furniture and furnishings were sourced from Europe and China.
- ◆ SM Mall Of Asia - Mall of Asia is dubbed the largest mall in Asia with a variety of stores, eateries and entertainment options.

LAGUNA

- ◆ Pagsanjan Falls - Pagsanjan Falls also known as Cavinti Falls (indigenous name: Magdapio Falls) is one of the most famous waterfalls in the Philippines. Located in the province of Laguna, the falls is one of the major tourist attractions of the region. The three-drop waterfall is reached by a river trip on dugout canoe, known locally as Shooting the rapids, originating from the municipality of Pagsanjan falls can also be reached from the top by a short hike from Cavinti. The boat ride has been an attraction since the Spanish Colonial Era with the oldest written account in 1894.
- ◆ Embroidery Capital - Lumban, located in the province of Laguna, has established itself as the "Hand Embroidery Capital of the Philippines." It is one of the oldest towns in the province and gets its name from the lumbang (candlenut) tree (Aleurites moluccanus). The designs are meticulously embroidered by hand on a variety of fabrics, including fine cotton, jusi, organza, and piña.

TAGAYTAY

- ◆ Taal Volcano - Taal Volcano is an active complex volcano in the freshwater Taal Lake, about 50 km south of Manila. The 243-sq km Taal Lake partially covers the Taal Caldera, which was formed by the volcano's powerful prehistoric eruptions. The volcano continues to emit hot fumes and ashes today.
- ◆ Las Pinas Bamboo Organ Church - The Diocesan Shrine and Parish of St. Joseph, more commonly known as Las Piñas Church, is located in one of the city's oldest districts. It is home to the renowned Bamboo Organ of Las Piñas, a pipe organ made of bamboo that was built in 1816 by its first parish priest, Fr. Diego Cera de la Virgen del Carmen. Fr. Cera also built the pipe organs of the Manila Cathedral and the San Nicolas de Tolentino Church in the old walled city of Manila.
- ◆ People's Park In The Sky - A historical urban park and it's one of the most popular and most visited tourist attractions in the province of Cavite. It is located in Tagaytay City and it's just a two hours drive from Metro Manila. People's Park in the Sky offers tourists a breathtaking 360-degree view of Taal Volcano, Taal Lake, Tagaytay Highlands, and the surrounding municipalities of Tagaytay City and the surrounding provinces.

VILLA ESCUDERO DAY TOUR

- ◆ Villa Escudero - A self-contained working coconut plantation, It was founded in the 1880s by Don Placido Escudero and his wife Dona Claudia Marasigan. Originally planted to sugarcane, the crop was converted to coconut by their son Don Arsenio Escudero in the early 1900s.
- ◆ Labasin Falls - The Labasin Waterfall Restaurant in Philippines is one of the most unusual restaurants as it gives one a chance to dine in the middle of a waterfall! Situated amidst the Villa Escudero Plantations and Resort, this restaurant is one-of-a-kind as it serves authentic seafood on bamboo tables while you enjoy the cool breeze of the surrounding forest and the refreshing waterfall.
