ATHENS

- Panathenaic Stadium - Where the first modern Olympic Games were held in 1896.
- Temple of Olympian Zeus - Also known as the Olympieion or Columns of the Olympian Zeus, is a former colossal temple at the center of the Greece capital Athens.
- The Monument of Unknown Soldier - It is located in front of the Greek Parliament in Athens city center and designed by the renowned Greek architects Lazaridis and Dimitriadis. It is dedicated in the memory of the unknown soldiers that sacrificed their life for their country.
- Acropolis - The Classical Period or Golden Age of Greece, from around 500 to 300 BC, has given the great monuments, art, philosophy, architecture, and literature which are the building blocks of our own civilization. In the following era, as thought and art flourished, the rocky hill has been transformed into a unique monument of thought and the arts. The most important monuments which are the Parthenon, the Erechtheion, the Propylaea, and the small temple Athena Nike were built during that time.

SANTORINI ISLAND

- Santorini - An island in the southern Aegean Sea, about 200km (120 mi) southeast of Greece's mainland. It is the largest island of a small, circular archipelago, which bears the same name and is the remnant of a volcanic caldera. The municipality of Santorini includes the inhabited islands of Santorini and Therasia and the uninhabited islands of Nea Kameni, Palaia Kameni, Aspronisi, and Christiana.
- Perrisa Black Sand Beach - Located on the rim of the volcano, the various beaches, its clear that there was a history of volcanic activity.
- Fira Town - It is the capital of Santorini. Modern day, Fira is the cultural and commercial center of the Santorini.
