DESTINATION:

CHIANG MAI

◆ Hug Chang – Is a part of Maetaeng Elephant Park that provides alternative activities. At Hug Chang, we show how well we treat our elephants and inform the correct information about Thai elephants. We also provide activities that tourists can touch and being close to elephants under the control of our professionally trained staff to ensure the safety of tourists.

◆ Dantewada Land Of Angels – A forest-like waterfall park located on the outskirts of Chiang Mai, with a fairyland-like garden view and gurgling water; after passing through many large and small trees, a four-story waterfall pours down.

◆ Long Neck Village – Typically refers to a community of the Kayan people (also known as the Kayan Lahwi), a sub-group of the larger Karen ethnic group from Myanmar (Burma) and Thailand. They are most famous for the practice of wearing neck rings, which are metal coils worn around the necks of women, causing their necks to elongate over time.

This tradition is often misunderstood as a form of body modification, but it's a cultural practice that has been passed down through generations. The neck rings are started when girls are young and the rings are gradually added as they grow older.

LAMPANG

◆ Lampang City Tour (By Horse-Carriage) – By horse car to explore the Lampang city, will passing Museum Yellow House, Kad Kong Tar Old house area, Wat Chiang Rai and clock tower.

◆ The Terracotta Garden – At Lamphun is a coffeeshop annex restaurant on a very large compound containing terracotta statues and structures. The Terracotta Garden is a great new attraction in Lamphun but it is not finished. Most structures such as the Khmer-style chedi and the pond must have been there for a longer time. If you wander away from the coffee shop you can cross a pond by a bamboo bridge, which will bring you to the most spectacular structure: a Khmer-style chedi which could have been in Cambodia or Northeast Thailand. Statues, ornaments, and construction material are strewn about.

◆ Wat Prathat Doi Prachan – Is a Buddhist temple located on Doi Prachan, a mountain in the northern region of Thailand. It is situated in the Chiang Mai province and is known for its historical significance, spiritual importance, and breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains and valleys. The temple is a popular pilgrimage site for both locals and tourists.
