TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

BALI

- ◆ Uluwatu - Is a village on the south-western tip of the Bukit Peninsula of Bali, Indonesia. Uluwatu is known for its blue waves and gorgeous soft sand beaches, world-class surfing, breathtaking cliff-top views, and spectacular sunsets.
- ◆ Pandawa Beach - Pandawa Beach is one of the many hidden beaches of Bali. Pandawa Beach also features milky-colored sands accompanied by clear blue waters going on an ebb and flow, suitable for those who crave a calming atmosphere while basking in the warmth of the radiant sun. Those who love a little bit of adventure can also take part in some recreational activities such as canoeing, snorkeling, surfing, or paragliding.
- ◆ Tegalalang Rice Terrace - Located north of Ubud in Bali, is renowned for its stunning layers of lush green rice paddies. It showcases the ingenuity of Bali's traditional Subak irrigation system, a brilliant harmony between nature and culture. Visiting in the early morning or late afternoon offers breathtaking views as sunlight bathes the terraces in a golden glow. Visitors can not only enjoy the scenic beauty but also try the famous rice field swing or take a leisurely walk through the paddies to experience the tranquility and charm of Bali's countryside.
- ◆ Tampak Siring - Located in a small town in central Bali, this sacred temple was built in 962 AD and is one of the island's most renowned Hindu holy sites. It is famous for its holy spring water, believed to have purifying powers. According to legend, the spring was created by the gods and is said to cleanse the body and soul, ward off evil, and bring blessings. Local worshippers and visitors alike come here to bathe in the sacred pools as a symbolic act of spiritual purification.
- ◆ Krisna Oleh-Oleh - Is one of the largest and most comprehensive souvenir shopping centers in Bali. Founded by Gusti Ngurah Anom in 2007, it has grown into a network of large outlets across the island. The stores offer a wide variety of products, including Balinese clothing, handicrafts, wood carvings, coffee, soaps, and more — all with transparent and fixed pricing. Many tourists consider it a great "one-stop shopping" destination with excellent value for money, making it the perfect place to buy gifts and souvenirs to take home.
