EDINBURGH

- Edinburgh – is Scotland's Capital City, One of the Most Historic Cities in the United Kingdom.
- Scottish Whisky – also known as 'Scotch'. It's believed whisky-making began in Scotland as winemaking methods spread from monasteries in Europe; with no access to grapes, monks used grain mash instead to produce an early form of the popular spirit. The name itself derives from the Gaelic name, uisge beatha, which translates loosely to 'water of life'. There are five Scottish whisky regions, Campbeltown, Highland, Islay, Lowland and Speyside, each with their own distinct flavours.
- Edinburgh Castle – is a historic castle in Edinburgh, situated at the top of the Royal Mile on top of Castle Rock, all elites can be seen from the city center and you can overlook the whole city of Edinburgh from above. The regal Crown Square is a real highlight, where you will find the magnificent Scotland's Crown-famous Stone of Destiny. The city of Edinburgh's coat of arms features is the image of Edinburgh Castle. The annual Edinburgh Military Exercise is also held in front of Edinburgh Castle.
- Royal Mile Old Town – is Edinburgh's most famous street. It connects Edinburgh Castle (to the west) with the Palace of Holyroodhouse (to the east). There are also many characteristic shops on this street, selling some local specialties of Scotland, and there are usually many street artists wearing kilts playing bagpipes on the roadside.
- Palace of Holyroodhouse – is the official residence of the British monarch in Scotland. Queen Elizabeth II spends one week in residence at Holyroodhouse during summer, where she carries out a range of official engagements and ceremonies.

STIRLING

- Fort Augustus – is a small village on the most southern tip of Loch Ness. A picturesque place where you can watch Loch Ness with places to eat and drink, shopping and history.

GLASGOW

- Glasgow – is Scotland's biggest city, also known as the second city of the British Empire. Glasgow famous around the UK as a great shopping destination, over 2,000 bars and restaurants serving mouth-watering food!
- Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum – One of Scotland's most popular free attractions and features 22 themed, state-of-the-art galleries displaying an astonishing 8000 objects. The most famous painting on display at Kelvingrove is the Salvador Dali masterpiece 'Christ of St John of the Cross'.

MANCHESTER

- Manchester Town Hall – in Albert Square is one of the most iconic landmarks in the city. One of the finest examples of Neo-Gothic architecture in the United Kingdom, the exterior is dominated by the clock tower which rises to 280 feet and houses Great Abel the clock bell. The town hall was designated as a Grade One listed buildings in England.
