TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

HO CHI MINH CITY

- ◆ Saigon Central Post Office - Built in the late 19th century by the team of French architect Gustave Eiffel, is one of Ho Chi Minh City's most iconic colonial landmarks. Combining French classical style with Eastern influences, its vaulted ceilings and detailed murals reflect the city's elegant past. Still operating today, visitors can send postcards and take photos, making it a must-visit spot to experience both French charm and Vietnamese history.
- ◆ Ben Thanh Market - Located in District 1, Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, it is one of the most iconic traditional markets in the city and a popular destination for both tourists and locals to shop and enjoy local cuisine. The market was originally built during the 19th century under French colonial rule and was later relocated to its current location in 1912, becoming an important landmark of Ho Chi Minh City.
- ◆ Notre-Dame Cathedral Basilica of Saigon - One of the most important buildings from the French colonial period, constructed between 1877 and 1880. The cathedral is made of red bricks and features a classic Gothic architectural style. Its two 58-meter-high bell towers are highly iconic. In front of the cathedral stands a statue of the Virgin Mary, which is regarded as a sacred site by the locals.

TAY NINH

- ◆ Ba Den Mountain - Located in Tay Ninh Province, Vietnam, Ba Den Mountain stands at 986 meters, making it the highest peak in southern Vietnam. It is known as the "First Mountain of the South" and offers a perfect blend of natural beauty, religious culture, and adventure. The most famous site on the mountain is Ba Den Pagoda, dedicated to the "Black Lady" deity, attracting numerous pilgrims who come to pray and admire the breathtaking views. Ba Den Mountain also served as an important strategic site during the Vietnam War, holding great historical significance. The scenery is beautiful all year round, especially at sunrise and sunset, when mist surrounds the peak, creating a mystical atmosphere. It is a remarkable destination that combines nature and culture.
- ◆ Cao Dai Temple - Is the Holy See of Caodaism and one of Vietnam's most distinctive religious landmarks. The faith combines elements of Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism, Christianity, and Islam, promoting the idea that "all religions come from one source." The temple's bright gold, blue, and pink tones represent universal and spiritual harmony. Inside, the ornate main hall features the "Divine Eye" on the ceiling, symbolizing heavenly wisdom and justice. Dragon pillars and finely carved corridors blend Eastern and Western styles. Visitors can observe the solemn prayer ceremonies, with priests in colorful robes creating a sacred and peaceful atmosphere. Cao Dai Temple stands as both a spiritual center and a reflection of Vietnam's harmony and cultural diversity.
