TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

DALAT

- ◆ Truc Lam Zen Monastery - Located in Da Lat City, Lam Dong Province, is one of the largest and most well-known Zen Buddhist monasteries in Vietnam. Situated on the slope of Phoenix Mountain, the monastery overlooks Tuyen Lam Lake and is surrounded by pine forests and peaceful natural scenery.
- ◆ Datanla Waterfall - One of the most popular and easily accessible waterfall attractions in Da Lat. Hidden among pine forests and valleys, the waterfall cascades down rocky layers, creating a natural and unspoiled landscape. It is also well known for its thrilling Alpine Coaster, where visitors can take a cable car or ride the coaster through the forest directly to the waterfall area. The experience is both safe and exciting, making it suitable for visitors of all ages.
- ◆ Clay Tunnel - Also known as the Clay Sculpture Park, is an outdoor art park located in the Tuyen Lam Lake area of Da Lat. The park features impressive clay sculptures made from local red clay, vividly depicting the history, culture, and development of Da Lat from the past to the present.
- ◆ Crazy House - Designed by renowned Vietnamese architect Đặng Việt Nga, the building draws inspiration from nature, fairy tales, and surrealism, resembling a giant treehouse or a dream-like maze. The architecture features no straight lines, with winding staircases, narrow pathways, and uniquely themed rooms inspired by animals and natural elements. Visitors can explore freely and experience a whimsical, fantasy-like atmosphere unlike any conventional building.
- ◆ Linh Phuoc Pagoda - Is one of the most unique and famous Buddhist temples in Da Lat, Vietnam. Built in 1949, the pagoda is renowned for its extraordinary architecture, decorated with millions of pieces of broken ceramics, porcelain, and glass, creating a colorful and intricate mosaic design. One of its highlights is an 18-meter-long dragon sculpture made from approximately 49,000 beer bottles, as well as the 37-meter Linh Phuoc Tower, considered one of the tallest pagoda towers in Vietnam.
- ◆ Puppy Farm - Combining cute animal interactions, flower viewing, and farm experiences, the farm is highly popular among families and young travelers. It is home to a variety of adorable and gentle animals, and also features natural attractions such as hydrangea gardens, sunflower fields, strawberry gardens, and coffee plantations. Each season offers its own unique scenery, making it an ideal spot for photography. Some areas also offer hands-on picking and farm activities, allowing visitors to connect with nature in a relaxed and enjoyable atmosphere.

Optional Tour : Vietnamese Massage (90 Minutes) [RM 130 / pax]
