TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

PINGTUNG

- ◆ Xiao Liuqiu Island - Is located off the coast of Donggang, Pingtung County, and is Taiwan's only coral reef island. Renowned for its rich marine ecology, dramatic coastal landscapes, and unique cultural heritage, the island is home to sea turtle habitats, vibrant coral reef ecosystems, and a distinctive fishing village culture. Popular attractions such as [Black Devil Cave], [Beauty Cave] and [Wild Boar Trench] showcase the island's natural charm and geological features. The long-standing coexistence between its people and the sea has shaped a unique cultural identity, making Liuqiu Island one of the most distinctive island destinations in southern Taiwan.
- ◆ Semi-Submersible Glass-Bottom Boat Experience - A 30-40 minute boat tour with an air-conditioned underwater cabin and large glass windows, offering clear views of coral reefs, tropical fish, and green sea turtles—all without getting wet. Above deck, enjoy scenic coastal views.
- ◆ Dapeng Bay National Scenic Area - Take a sightseeing yacht to explain the natural ecological landscape of Dapeng Bay, and admire the Oyster Shell Island, which is almost entirely made of dumped oyster shells accumulated over many years. After the ecological lake tour, we also added a grilled oyster feast, and the grilled oysters had no fishy smell and were all fresh and sweet.
- ◆ Pingtung King Boat Museum - Using "Wang Boat" as the design concept, the architecture translates the imagery of the Wang boat and the ocean into its form, creating a connection to the local identity of Donggang. The opening above the roof symbolizes the dragon eyes—the soul of the Wang boat—while the zigzag design below incorporates transparent glass to reduce the visual heaviness of the structure. Dynamic, wave-like curves evoke the movement of the sea, embodying the enduring and ever-flowing spirit of local culture.
- ◆ Eluanbi Lighthouse - Pingtung Eluanbi Park is located at the southernmost tip of Taiwan. It is famous both at home and abroad for its pure white Eluanbi Lighthouse. It was selected as one of the eight scenic spots in Taiwan during the Japanese occupation. What comes into view is the Coconut Grove Avenue, which is really beautiful. You can also overlook the blue sea and Dajianshi Mountain in the distance. The vast field of vision is really refreshing!
- ◆ Paradise of Capybara - It incorporates many Japanese elements, such as Torii, Kaminari and other scenic spots. The strong Japanese style is really easy to photograph. The temple gate designed after the Japanese Kaminari Gate is super cute, and there are capybara guardians on the left and right. You can feed sika deer, scottish blackface sheep and capybara.

KAOHSIUNG

- ◆ Hamasing Railway Culture Park - The park features large-scale public art installations, including giant suitcases and gramophones crafted from steel. These creative artworks attract visitors and photographers alike, making every corner of the park an ideal photo spot while preserving Kaohsiung's railway heritage.
- ◆ Pier 2 Art Centre - Pier-2 Art Center regularly hosts major annual art events such as the Kaohsiung Design Festival, Container Arts Festival, Pier-2 Anime Festival, and Steel Sculpture Festival. Artists and designers from around the world gather here to present exhibitions, installations, musical performances, and immersive experiences, bringing art into everyday urban life and enriching Kaohsiung's cultural landscape.
- ◆ Three Pavilions at Crystal Lake - Located on the northern lakeside slope of Chengcing Lake, the Three Pavilions Scenic Area is one of the famous Eight Scenic Spots of Chengcing Lake. It consists of three traditional Chinese-style pavilions, namely Youru Pavilion, Danru Pavilion, and Qingru Pavilion, each featuring its own distinctive architectural style.

TAINAN

- ◆ West Market - With a history spanning over a century, West Market was once the largest traditional market in southern Taiwan and holds countless memories for local residents. After extensive restoration and revitalization, the market retains its iconic Mansard roof architecture while incorporating creative retail shops, textile stores, light dining venues, and specialty food stalls, creating a unique blend of heritage preservation and modern tourism.
- ◆ Dakeng Leisure Farm - Dakeng Farm is a nature-based leisure farm featuring a rope suspension bridge and a high-altitude zip slide, offering both scenic views and thrilling fun. It also has a natural mountain spring SPA for relaxation. Visitors can get close to cute animals like musk pigs, hens with chicks, peacocks, and white doves. Perfect for family trips, the farm provides fun ecological interactions and is a great escape into nature.
