TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

NANTOU

- ◆ Zhushan Zinan Temple - Built in the 10th year of Emperor Qianlong's reign during the Qing Dynasty, Zinan Temple is dedicated primarily to Fude Zhengshen (the Earth God). The temple houses a century-old stone incense burner and the Stone Deity. With a history of more than 300 years, it is famous for its "Prosperity Money" blessing and the golden chicken statue, which visitors touch for good fortune and wealth.
- ◆ Xitou Forest Recreation Area - Located in Lugu Township, Nantou County, Xitou Nature Education Area is renowned for its lush forests of cedar, cypress, Taiwan red cypress, ginkgo, and Moso bamboo. Towering ancient trees and extensive forest trails make it an ideal destination for recreation and forest bathing. Attractions such as the Exhibition Hall, Bamboo Specimen Garden, University Pond, Sacred Tree, and Moso Bamboo Forest are also excellent for botanical observation and birdwatching.

TAICHUNG

- ◆ National Comics Museum - The National Comics Museum revitalizes the historic Taichung Prison architectural complex into a cultural hub integrating museum, library, and creative spaces. The park connects 19 preserved historic buildings and features a newly constructed main building on the northern side, housing comic archives, research facilities, exhibitions, educational programs, a library, and an animation cinema.

MIAOLI

- ◆ Triangle Rush Exhibition Hall - Located in Yuanli Township, Miaoli County, the Rush Grass Cultural Museum is a textile museum showcasing the ecology of triangular rush grass, the history of the weaving industry, woven products, and the life stories of local craftsmen.

TAIPEI

- ◆ Heping Island GeoPark - Formerly known as Sheliau Island, Heping Island is situated northeast of Keelung and serves as the gateway to Keelung Harbor. It was one of the earliest locations in Northern Taiwan visited by Westerners and one of the first areas settled by Han Chinese. Originally inhabited by the Ketagalan people, the island was later designated as a military control zone. Today, part of its coastline has been opened to the public as Heping Island Geopark.
- ◆ Shen'ao RAIL BIKE Experience - The Badouzi section of the Shen'ao Rail Bike is adjacent to Badouzi Railway Station, the railway station closest to the sea in Taiwan. Its elevated platform offers panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean. Uniquely, the platform spans both Keelung City and New Taipei City, making it the only railway station in Taiwan that crosses two municipalities. Nearby attractions include the National Museum of Marine Science and Technology, Shen'ao Fishing Harbor, and Chaojing Park. The Shen'ao end of the rail bike route is close to the former Shen'ao Station site, Elephant Trunk Rock, and Shen'ao Fishing Harbor, with convenient access to Ruifang and Jiufen.
- ◆ Beitou Heart Village - One of Taiwan's 13 preserved military dependents' villages, Beitou Heart Village is among the few remaining large-scale and well-preserved military villages in Taipei. It is also Taiwan's only hot spring military medical village. The site retains residential buildings from different historical periods and reflects Beitou's unique heritage, hot spring culture, and community memories, making it an important historical and cultural landmark.
