LONDON

- Buckingham Palace – Buckingham Palace has served as the official London residence of the UK's sovereigns since 1837 and today is the administrative headquarters of the Monarch.
- Big Ben – Big Ben is the nickname for the Great Bell of the clock at the north end of the Palace of Westminster in London is usually extended to refer to both the clock and the clock tower. The tower is officially Elizabeth Tower, renamed to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of Elizabeth II in 2012.

PARIS

- Eiffel Tower – The Eiffel Tower is an iron lattice tower located on the Champ de Mars in Paris. It was named after the engineer Gustave Eiffel, whose company designed and built the tower. Erected in 1889 as the entrance arch to the 1889 World's Fair, it was initially criticised by some of France's leading artists and intellectuals for its design, but has become both a global cultural icon of France and one of the most recognizable structures in the world. Once the tallest structure in the world, the Eiffel Tower is probably Europe's best known landmark and Paris's most famous symbol.
- Arch of Triumph – Is one of the most famous monuments in Paris. The Arc de Triomphe (in "Triumphal Arch") honours those who fought and died for France in the French Revolutionary and the English: Napoleonic Wars, with the names of all French victories and generals inscribed on its inner and outer surfaces. Beneath its vault lies the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier from World War I.

BRUSSELS

- Atomium – The Atomium is a building in Brussels originally constructed for Expo 58, the 1958 Brussels World's Fair. Designed by the engineer André Waterkeyn and architects André and Jean Polak.
- Grand Place – The Grand Place or Grote Markt is the central square of Brussels. The square is the most important tourist destination. It is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

AMSTERDAM

- Zaanse Schans – With its traditional houses, windmills, warehouses and workshops, the historic village of Zaanse Schans offers a preserved glimpse of what it was like to live in the Netherlands in the 18th and 19th centuries.
- Wooden Shoe Workshop – A beautiful three-bay 18th-century building and it is largest clog shop in the Netherlands. Fifty years ago, this mil I barn became home to an extraordinary clog factory with a clog museum and shop. Each day, you can watch as the clog-makers demonstrate their craft by transforming a block of wood into a wooden shoe!
- Cheese Farm – A beautiful farmhouse has a detached dwelling and was constructed using old beams. The Kaasmakerij hosts daily cheese-making demonstrations that illustrate every aspect of cheese production.

COLOGNE

- Gothic Cathedral of Cologne – One of the oldest cities in Germany. Within the most spectacular Gothic cathedral of Cologne has the world's largest church facade, 1996 has been designated as World Heritage Site. It is the main symbol of Cologne, unofficial symbol.

HEIDELBERG

- Medieval Town – The "old town" on the south bank of the Neckar, is long and narrow. The Main Street (Hauptstrasse), a mile-long pedestrian street, running the length of the old town. The town itself is a maze of historic, baroque and gabled buildings lining the river with its romantic old-town behind.

TITISEE

- Lake Titisee – A lake in the southern Black Forest in Baden-Württemberg. It is said it got its name from Roman Emperor Titus. It covers an area of 1.07 km² and has an average depth of 20 m. It owes its creation to the Feldberg glacier, the moraine ploughed up by which in the Pleistocene epoch nowadays forms the lake's shores. The lake's outflow, at 840 m above sea level, is the river Gutach (or as it is called farther downstream, the Wutach). On the north shore lies the spa town of the same name, today a part of the municipality of Titisee-Neustadt.
