TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

HONGKONG

- Hong Kong Disneyland - Located at Penny's Bay, Lantau Island, Hong Kong Disneyland officially opened on 12 September 2005. It is one of the world's Disney theme parks and is home to the world's first World of Frozen themed land. The park features magical attractions, entertainment shows, Disney character experiences, and exciting themed areas, making it a popular destination for families, couples, and Disney fans from around the world.
- The Star Ferry - The iconic green ferry connecting both sides of Victoria Harbour, is one of Hong Kong's oldest forms of transportation and a shared memory among locals and visitors. Established in 1888, the Star Ferry has a history of more than 130 years. It operates between Tsim Sha Tsui in Kowloon and Central / Wan Chai on Hong Kong Island, serving as an important link between the two sides of the harbour. The Star Ferry carries countless memories of Hong Kong people and continues to attract visitors who wish to experience this memorable short journey across the harbour.
- Victoria Peak - Also known as The Peak, Victoria Peak stands at approximately 552 metres above sea level and is the highest mountain on Hong Kong Island. It is one of Hong Kong's most iconic tourist attractions. The Peak is famous for its spectacular panoramic views overlooking Victoria Harbour, Hong Kong's impressive skyline, and the city's magnificent night scenery. It is widely regarded as one of the best locations to appreciate the beauty of Hong Kong from above.

ZHUHAI

- Fisher Girl Statue - Located along Xianglu Bay in Zhuhai, Guangdong Province, the Zhuhai Fisher Girl Statue was completed in 1982. It is the most iconic landmark of Zhuhai and has become a symbol of the city. Standing approximately 8.7 metres tall, the statue was designed by renowned Chinese sculptor Pan He and carved from granite.
- Yeli Island - Located in Xiangzhou District, Zhuhai, Yeli Island lies between Xianglu Bay and Xiangzhou Bay. It is the closest island to downtown Zhuhai and is connected to the city by Haiyan Bridge and Crescent Bridge. Covering an area of approximately 0.42 square kilometres, the island features beautiful coastal scenery and is a popular leisure destination for locals and visitors. Guests can enjoy relaxing walks, cycling, and scenic views of the sea.
- New Yuan Ming Palace - Located in Xiangzhou District, Zhuhai, New Yuan Ming Palace is a large cultural theme park inspired by the original Old Summer Palace (Yuanmingyuan) in Beijing. It officially opened in 1997. Covering approximately 1.39 square kilometres, the park recreates 18 scenic spots selected from the original 40 scenes of Yuanmingyuan, following a 1:1 scale design to showcase the grandeur and elegance of Qing Dynasty imperial gardens. The attraction combines royal architecture, traditional Chinese gardens, and cultural elements, allowing visitors to experience the beauty of ancient Chinese imperial culture.

MACAO

- The Ruins of St. Paul's - Also known as Da San Ba, is one of Macau's most famous landmarks and a symbol of the city. Located near St. Paul Street on a hillside, it is the remaining façade of the historic St. Paul's Church, which was built during the Portuguese colonial period. Today, it represents Macau's unique blend of Eastern and Western cultures and is a must-visit attraction for tourists.
- Macao Tower (Outlook) - Also known as the Macao Observation Tower, is one of the most recognizable landmarks in Macao. Standing at a total height of 338 metres (1,108 feet) with 56 floors, the tower's main observation deck is located 223 metres above ground level. It is one of the tallest free-standing observation towers in the world and is also a member of the World Federation of Great Towers.
