AMALFI

- Amalfi Coast – the town that gives its name to the coast, earning it nick name "Divine Coast", one of the most popular destinations of the world's jet set. A t the center of the main square there is the beautiful Cathedral of St. Andrew, with its impressive staircase, the bell-tower in Arab-Norman style and the charming Cloister of Paradise.

CAPRI ISLAND

- Blue Grotto – Hop on Board the Hydrofoil to Isle of Capri. Visit the most famous sight on Capri, Blue Grotto. Entrance to Blue Grotto is only possible travelling by wooden rowboat and enjoy a picturesque ride. With aquamarine water of the ocean, the island's dramatic coastline and the rugged landscapes plunging into the sparkling water, the view when on the boat is truly mesmerizing.(Blue Grotto visit also subject to weather, the sea level condition and winter season from Nov to Dec. Alternative, it will be replaced to enjoy the captivating views of Anacapri)

PALERMO

- Norman Palace & Palatine Chapel – the former seat of the kings of Sicily, is the oldest royal residence in Europe. Its greatest attraction is the Palatine Chapel, where every detail reveals the perfect union among different styles: Byzantine, Norman and Arab elements.

AGRIGENTO

- Valley of the Temples – The Greek temples, symbols of the city of Agrigento for centuries, is the most important vestige of ancient classical culture in Sicily. The Valley includes remains of seven temples, UNESCO recognized the Doric temple complex as one of the main examples of Greek art and culture, and also listed the Valley of the Temples in Agrigento as a World Heritage Site in 1997.
- The Stair of the Turks – is a wonderful cliff overlooking the Strait of Sicily. It is a wall of calcareous marl which is blinding white in color, and composed of limestone and clay. Created over the centuries through the continuous movement of water and wind, it slowly took the shape of an enormous staircase thus called the 'Scala dei Turchi'.

TAORMINA

- Corso Umberto – is Taormina's main street, begins at Piazza IX Aprile and then crosses the town before ending at Porta Catania. The entire street, with its squares and terraces, shops and open-air cafés seems made for sauntering and stopping to savor the views of Mt. Etna and the sea.

ALBEROBELLO

- Trulli of Alberobello – is a town that is famous for her distinctive and evocative local architecture, characterised by the presence of trulli. A kind of traditional limestone building from the area that features cone-shaped or domed roofs that are made of corbelled slabs of stone, has been designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site since 1996.

MATERA

- Sassi di Matera – are two districts of the Italian city of Matera, Basilicata, well-known for their ancient cave dwellings inhabited since the Paleolithic period. Along with the park of the Rupestrian Churches, it was named a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1993.

SORRENTO

- Sorrento Cathedral – is a Roman Catholic cathedral dedicated to the Saints Phillip and James. It is said to be risen on the ruins of an ancient Temple dedicated to Jupiter. One of the curiosities of the church surrounds its Bell Tower.

POMPEII

- Pompeii – was an ancient city located near the city of Naples in the Campania region of Italy. When Mount Vesuvius erupted in AD 79, this city was buried under 4 to 6 meters of pumice and volcanic ash. This allowed the buildings and monuments of the city to be preserved to a great extent and gave a peek into Roman life. Pompeii is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a popular tourist spot in Italy.
- The Forum of Pompeii – located at the heart of Pompeii, is the center of religious, cultural and political life of the ancient Pompeii.
- Mount Vesuvius – is the only active volcano on mainland Europe. It is best known because of the eruption in A.D. 79 that destroyed the cities of Pompeii, and Herculaneum.

NAPLES

- Castel Nuovo – better known as Maschio Angioino, is a medieval and Renaissance castle built at the behest of Charles I of Anjou in 1266, after defeating the Swabians, ascending the throne of Sicily and moving the capital from Palermo to Naples. In the 15th century, the castle was extensively renovated to its present form after it was conquested by the king of Aragon. The castle houses the Civic Museum and the library of the Neapolitan Society of Homeland History.
- Piazza del Plebiscito – It was named after the referendum that pulled Naples into the unification of Italy in 1860. The bold square stands as a symbol of a rejuvenated Naples, reinvented to crown its historic landmarks. The four buildings that surround the Piazza del Plebiscito include the Royal Palace, the Basilica of St. Francis of Paola, and the Prefecture and the Palace of Salerno, two symmetrical buildings that bring harmony to the place.
